Educational Leadership Advanced Certificate

Offered through the Rockland Graduate Campus of Long Island University in collaboration with the Middletown Teacher Center

Informational Meeting

Date: Wednesday, May 12, 2010

Time: 4:00 pm

Location: Middletown Teacher Center

Learn about this Post-Master's program for teachers, supervisors and administrators, which is offered by the Middletown Teacher Center in collaboration with Long Island University. This program leads to eligibility for NYS certification as a School District Leader (SDL) and certification as a School Building Leader (SBL). It also meets the requirements for superintendent and principal in New Jersey. The program is designed to prepare personnel at the school and district level to:

- Develop insights into and understanding of theories of leadership, particularly as they relate to decision-making and curriculum work
- Understand and develop human relations techniques
- Use research methods for evaluating, understanding and improving programs
- Analyze the influence of the power structure on the operation and administration of public schools
- Understand school law, personnel and business concepts
- Apply knowledge and skills to the administrative internship

Admission Requirements - Advanced Certificate candidate must have:

- Master's degree with a minimum 3.25 GPA
- Permanent/Professional state certification in teaching or an educational specialty
- Two letters of recommendation
- Teaching experience and prior experience review
- Documentation of years of experience
- Interview

50% Reduction in Tuition!

New Cohort to begin September 2010 - All courses held locally.

Please RSVP by May 11, 2010 if you plan to attend.
